Our Specialty judge Ida Bouwhuis - Llovall- UK

My journey in WHWT started in 1979 when I started working in the Lasara Kennels in England, Barbara Graham was well known in WHWT circles and was also quite successful. Her partner in the kennel was Jane Kabel, and between the two of them (and many others along the way) they taught me grooming, handling and breeding. I feel fortunate to have been around in the days of the big kennels, the many outstanding dogs of the day, and the people that I met.

Ever since those days I have not been without a Westie or 2! When Jane gave up her partnership in the kennels, we decided to pool resources and dogs at that time in The Netherlands, many Westies followed, many successes followed. After a few years we decided to move to the UK with all our dogs, which at the time included two Samoyeds. In 2015 we lost Jane, and although I said at the time I would not get back to breeding, showing or photography again, here we are, 2024 and I judge at CC level, have got three youngsters that I enjoy showing and I even got a new camera, even after all these years I still love the WHWT, their sense of humour and the fact that even at 11 inches they think they are as large as a Rottweiler!

Looking forward to coming over to Canada to judge your Specialty and hope to meet many of my Facebook friends.

Our Sweepstakes & Junior Handling judge Samantha Bradbury – Fourastay - UK

I grew up in a household with dogs, my sister bred and showed German Shepherds so I spent many hours in my childhood in the 1970's and early 80's, dog sitting, handwriting pedigrees, travelling round the country attending dog shows and Junior Handling. I went on to have my first dog, a GSD named Fallon in the mid 1980's and we had fun at local shows and obedience classes. I also used to attend a local dog club and handle Cocker Spaniels for a local breeder/exhibitor.

After losing Fallon, I had a break and went on to have a family but had a yearning to return to dog showing. After a long period of deciding which breed to get, we finally made a decision 11years ago to get a West Highland White Terrier and our Jock arrived.

A wonderful boy of the best of temperaments, we had fun and even our son had some success Junior Handling with him. Two years later we were approached by a breeder and our Pearl arrived who has been our foundation female and went on to give us a Champion, our Burt and his litter sister Rose gaining her Junior Warrant. We are currently showing our third generation and hoping for continued success but mainly for me, it's the love and passion for a breed that I love. I have started my judging journey, where I have been judging at Terrier group open shows, club open shows and all breed open show level which I have thoroughly enjoyed appreciating fellow exhibitors dogs.

My enjoyment comes from spending time with my dogs outside the ring and appreciating the time and work involved in showing dogs and of course loving their big personalities in a small dog.
